

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 29th day of August, 1865, and, thereby certify that I have no interest, direct or indirect, in the prosecution of this claim.

Edward R. Sanderson, Judge of the Court of Probate for the District of Guilford, Conn.

State of Connecticut, } County of New Haven. } ss: on the 29th day of August, A. D. 1865, personally appeared before me, Edward R. Sanderson, Judge of the Court of Probate for the District of Guilford, in the County and State aforesaid, Catherine F. Davis aged 39 years, and Philos C. Parmele aged 46 years, residents of Guilford, State of Connecticut, persons whom I certify to be respectable and entitled to credit, who being by me duly sworn according to law, say that that they do reside and are aged as aforesaid. - That on the 3rd day of June, 1852, they were present at the house of John L. Gansby in the City of New Haven, State of Connecticut, and witnessed the marriage ceremony performed between Joel C. Parmele and Jane J. Burrill by the Rev. Asa M. Train, of Milford, Conn.
That the said Jane J. Burrill then married is the identical person who now claims a pension as the widow of the said Parmele
