

State of Connecticut
County of New Haven

On this 30th day of January A.D. 1867 before me a Notary Public

duly authorized to administer oaths for general purposes within said County and State, I came whom I certify to be respectable and entitled to credit John D. Whelan, who being duly questioned and sworn deposes and says that he was Captain of Co. G. 15th Regt. C.V. commanded by Colonel Wright in the war of 1861 for the suppression of the Rebellion and that he has a distinct recollection of the death of William H.
Dolph who was a private in said company and further that the disease of which said Dolph died was contracted by exposure while in the line of his duty, and that he believes the disease of which said Dolph ^{died} is correctly reported in his letter to Mrs. Dolph the widow of said deceased immediately after the death of said Dolph which said letter he understands from Mrs.
Dolph aforesaid was forwarded to the Pension Office attached to his claim for Pension I am to and subscribed before me on the day and Year above written
