Springfield, Massachusetts.

Madam:

Relative to your above-cited claim for renewal of pension under the general law, you are again advised that the same requires your affidavit showing all property owned by you October 25, 1911, date of filing your claim, and since that date, the value thereof, the income derived therefrom, and your expenses on account of taxes, insurance and repairs.

You should also state, under oath, whether Royal B. Riggs, your late husband, ever served in the army or navy of the United States, and, if so, the organization in which such service was rendered.

Your statement not sworn to, filed August 8, 1912, does not meet the requirements in your claim.

Very respectfully,

J. L. DAVENPORT

Commissioner.

July 30, 1912.

Mrs. Mary A. Riggs,
168 Pearl Street,
Springfield, Massachusetts.

Madam:

In response to the communication of C. E. Fisk, dated the 22nd instant, received the same date, relative to your above-entitled claim for pension, you are advised that it requires your affidavit showing all property owned by you October 25, 1911, date of filing claim, and since that date, the value thereof, the income you derive therefrom, and your expenses on account of taxes, insurance and repairs.

The claim also requires evidence, record if possible, showing date of your marriage to Royal B. Riggs. The testimony of Charles E. and Margaret L. Fisk relative to this point is not satisfactory, as affiants who state that they have known you only 23 years, could have no personal knowledge of your marriage in 1869.

Your affidavit is also required showing whether the said Riggs, served in the military or naval service of the United States, and, if so, the designation of his service.

Very respectfully,

Signia

J. L. DAVENPORT.

Commissioner.

Mrs. Mary A. Riggs,
Springfield, Massachusetts.

Madam;

In your above entitled claim for renewal of pension under the Act of March 3, 1901, you should furnish record or other evidence, showing the date of death of your last husband, Royal B. Riggs, and the date of your marriage to him.

There is also required the evidence of two credible witnesses showing whether you had been divorced from Royal B. Riggs.

You should furnish your affidavit, showing the character, location and value of all property owned by you, corroborated by the statement of the assessor, or the testimony of two credible witnesses having personal knowledge, and if any property has been disposed of since the death of your husband that fact should be shown. If your last husband left any life insurance, the amount and the name of the beneficiary s should be shown.

Very respectfully,

November 7, 1911.

Sir;

For use in the above entitled claim for pension, you are requested to furnish this Bureau with a report in the case of Mary A. Dunn, pensioned under the general law by certificate number 86,342, Hartford Agency, showing the date to which last paid.

Very respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.
