State of Connecticut, } County of New Haven. }^{ss.} On this 3^d day of November, A. D. 1866, personally appeared before me, Judge of the Court of Probate for the District of Guilford, in the County and State aforesaid, Rev. George P. Wood, who being first duly sworn according to law, deposes and says, that he is Pastor of the Third Congregational Church in Guilford, in said County, and State; that he is well acquainted with Louisa D. Field of said Guilford, who is a member of his Church; that on the 7th day of April, 1862, he legally joined in marriage Edmund P. Field and Louisa D. Dudley both of said Guilford; that the marriage license which authorized him to perform the marriage ceremony, contained their names as above stated, and that he made his certificate, and made his return to the Registrar of said Town of Guilford, in accordance with said license; He further says that the said Louisa D. Dudley then married, is the identical person who is now the widow of the said Edmund P. Field, and who claims a pension as his widow.

He further says that he is informed, and after careful inquiry, verily believes, that the said Louisa D. Field was baptized by the name of Deborah Louisa Dudley, and that in consequence of her extreme aversion to the nickname of "Deb" given by her schoolmates and others, she changed
